AMEND Senate Bill No. 7001*

House Bill No. 7001

by adding the following language as a new subsection (i) in the first amendatory section of Amendment No. 100 to SB7001 (Document No. 1210220):

(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, it is the intent of the general assembly that new members shall be appointed to the commission of ethics and election finance, formerly named the registry of election finance, by April 1, 2006. No present member of the commission may be reappointed to the commission. Members of the commission shall be selected for staggered five-year terms as provided in § 2-10-103. The current members of the commission of ethics and election finance shall remain in office until the end of business March 31, 2006.
